Title: South Dakota State University (SDSU) Retired Employees Discount Card

Purpose of the SDSU Retired Employees Discount Card: SDSU Retired Employees Discount Card will be available for those individuals who retire from South Dakota State University. Recognizing South Dakota State University retired employees and encouraging these individuals to become engaged in SDSU activities.

Benefit of the SDSU Retired Employees Discount Card: The card will provide significant discounts for specific activities and facilities on campus. This includes “add on” discounts for members who already receive discounts at the bookstore, etc. for use on campus. The goal of this card is to also encourage more involvement from South Dakota State University retirees in campus activities through volunteerism and promotion of South Dakota State University.

Eligibility for SDSU Retired Employees Group Discount Card: To become eligible and receive a SDSU Retired Employee Discount Card, all individuals need to be retired from South Dakota State University.

Retirees include faculty, CSA and NFE. Employees who resign are not included in this opportunity.

Fees: No dues will be involved and no fees will be required in order to receive the discount card. Application for and use of the card is optional by the retiree.

Coordination of the Process of Receiving and Utilizing South Dakota State University Retired Employees Group Discount Card: Upon retirement from SDSU a Human Resource staff member will discuss with the retiree the purpose of the card and provide directions on how to access the landing page on the SDSU Alumni Association web site. Current retirees will be informed through email.

- The retiree is to take the initiative to apply for and obtain the actual discount card. The SDSU card services office will produce and mail the card to the retiree. No fee will be involved.
- University Relations designed the discount card. The card will contain name of the retiree and date of the retirement.
- This landing page on the Alumni Association will also provide a list of the discount areas where the discount card can be used.
- A list of current and future volunteer opportunities will also be listed, e.g., hosting at events on campus, move-in day, ushering at the Performing Arts Center, etc.
